(Sahih Muslim) This is a large edition of the very first printed copy of this book. It is beautifully bound in luxurious calfskin with a gold foil stamp on the front of each volume, as well as 'Mashkouratun Javidnama' embossed in gold on each page. The book is completely un-blemished, and is in flawless condition. This book was written by Abdul Qadir Gilani in the beginning of the 10th century. We believe that this is the first book in the English language. The verse quoted above is taken from the Quran. "Allah is the last and the best. God, the Blessed and Exalted, says, 'Allah has punished them on account of their unbelief.'" (Quran, 2:256) "Allah, the Blessed and Exalted, says, 'God has punished them on account of their unbelief,' and the verse, 'the Day will come to all those who have lived in the world and who have rejected the truth.'" (Sahih Bukhari) "Verily, the Day will come when all those who have lived in the world and who have rejected the truth, will abide therein and the Hour will be established on them. They will be informed of what they were guilty of, and their deeds will be made known to
