Sentimental Ramu Sentimental Ramu is a 1995 Telugu drama film, produced by C. Narayana Reddy under the Sahayalok Productions banner and directed by G. K. Reddy. It stars Akkineni Nageswara Rao, Nagma, Meena in the lead roles and music composed by Raj-Koti. The film is remake of 1990 film Gharana Bullodu. Plot Ramu (Akkineni Nageswara Rao) is a sincere, straight forward, truthful and a disciplined youth. He is selected as a secretary in Prasad Rao's (M. Balaiah) company. Once, Ramu mistakes a woman (Meena) posing as an actress to be his younger sister while he is looking at her in a movie theatre. Later, Ramu sees a flash of light in the same place and knows that his family has got separated. Soon Ramu starts visiting Meena and notices her good qualities. Ramu develops an intimate relationship with her and even gets married to her, only to find that she is an actress. After coming to know about the truth, he treats her as his wife and carries on with his work. At the same time, Prasad Rao makes Ramu his successor and appoints him as his daughter's suitor. Ramu takes over as the company's chairman and the film company goes through good times with the help of his brother Lakshminarayana's (Chalapathi Rao) assistance. Before he gets successful as a businessman, Ramu meets with an accident and is admitted to the hospital. There, Meena stands up for him and takes responsibility as a good wife. Meanwhile, Ramu also learns that his family is against his marriage with Meena and starts hating her. On the other hand, Meena starts loving Ramu and tries to resolve the misunderstanding of her family. Thereafter, they learn about the truth and unite. At last, the whole truth is revealed and the misunderstandings are cleared. Cast Akkineni Nageswara Rao as Ramu
