Najafi was born in Tehran and currently lives and works in London, UK. He graduated from the University of Tehran with a masters degree in Political Geography. He received his Ph.D from the School of Oriental and African Studies, London where his dissertation focused on Art, Identity, and Social Space under the supervision of Antoine Balandier. Art Najafi's artistic practice includes video, photography, installation, and drawing. His work is often investigated through questions of power and representation. Although he is a social activist by background and initially entered art practice with a political aim in mind, Najafi's work has moved away from political agendas and is now instead focused on "multicultural issues, history and memory. His current approach is a critique of the limitations of a Eurocentric curatorial approach that is too often practiced in the West". He employs a variety of techniques, including 3D digital sculpture, photo-montage, photography, installation, video, and drawing. Najafi has worked at the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, Boston Center for the Arts, the Victoria and Albert Museum, Kettle's Yard, and the Edinburgh Napier University.
